

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

By becoming a member of one of Ireland's longest-running trade unions, you gain access to invaluable support and protection in your career. As a member of the Dairy Executives Association, you benefit from expert advice, personalised representation, and unwavering support when you need it most.

Name : Email :

Phone : DOB :

Home Address :

Name of Employer / Enterprise :

Job Title : Date of hire :

Have you previously been a member of DEA? Yes No

If yes, state reason why membership ceased :

Were you previously a member of another union?

I authorise appropriate subscription to DEA to be deducted from my pay at source. The amount may be varied by decision of the DEA Central Executive Council for time to time. The current applicable monthly subscription is €31.00 Yes

I wish to join as a Graduate Member. Please note all Graduate members must be on a Graduate Program or Trainee Manager Program with their company to be eligible to join as a Graduate member Yes

I authorise appropriate subscription to DEA to be deducted from my pay at source. The amount may be varied by the decision of the DEA Central Executive Council from time to time. The current applicable monthly subscription for Graduate Members is €10.00. Please note your Subscription will automatically revert to the full monthly amount of €31.00 once your Graduate program is complete. Yes

I agree to abide by the DEA Constitution and Rules Yes

Signature _____

Membership Benefits

Confidential, personalised advice when facing workplace challenges.

Expert individual representation for disputes or negotiations.

Collective representation on crucial matters impacting your working life.

Individualised support on various employment-related issues, including contracts, severance, job security, redundancy, equality, and work-related stress.

Connecting members with peers to keep you connected in a dynamic and evolving sector.

